Home Team Defeated St. Albans High in a Fast and Exciting Game

COACH ROSS' MEN PLAYED GOOD GAME

Visitors Were Not Often in Position to Threaten Spaulding Goal

St. Albans high school's chain of football victories was broken when the team came to Barre Saturday afteraoon and tackled the Spaulding high school team. Spaulding winning by the score of 19 to 0 in a fast and exciting

L. Densmore was in the lineup of Spaulding for a short time and was by Coach Ross in order to keep him for the game with Montpelier high school. James Murphy substitut-ed for Densmore and aided materially in piling up Spaulding's score. Smith, Brown, Beaulieu and Greig also showed their effectiveness.

The game in detail was as follows Spaulding won the toss and chose to receive the ball. Spaulding made the first 10 yards and was then penalized five for offsides. Failing to make the GODDARD'S VICTORY down. Greig punted, putting the ball near St. Albans' 15-yard line. After making the first down and when near the 22 yard line, St. Albans, fumbled and Spaulding recovered. Brown then made an end run for a good gain and next tore through center; made the first touchdown just six minutes after the game started. Goddard's forward passing was near ly perfect. No little should be said of the speedy little team of the college, of the goal line. Spaulding was with a fast halfback in Flemming and a star fullback in Ryan. Croteau, another star football player of the college played an unusual game as quarter back. The game was continued through placed by Densmore. Greig attempted four 15-minute periods, was clean throughout and was free from knockouts although several of the men on Albans, who fumbled but recovered and both sides were taken from the game was downed on the 25-yard line. "As for Hungary, few people here believe it will survive as an independent country. Eventual union with Rural convention committee are: Paul mania seems now inevitable, either with its own king as vassal, or simply as part of the empire.

"The Rumanians were quick to see Beattie, Guildhall; George S. Bennett, the powerlessness of the allies and simply disregarded the communications from Paris. The so-called inter-allied military mission, unbacked by any thing real, is a farce. The other day a letter was sent to the Rumanian commander by this mission, written in English, and he handed it back with A Child's Soft Teeth the remark to communicate with him in a language understood by civilized remarked that the Paris conference had sent them a very impolite note to which they were forced to reply in kind. These are merely illustrative of the conditions there.

"Hungary will starve this winter. It is beginning to starve now. The Rumanians have stripped it utterly, from seed wheat to the printing press. They control and censor the mails and wires and are in fact and deed conquerors.
